President's Message - Mary Ann Baum

Hello Ladies,

Well I guess we are going to see some winter temperatures, especially over the weekend, but I guess it is that time of year. We cannot complain, because we had a beautiful fall.

Our fall luncheon, social and card party is fast approaching and we need more baskets. Yetta offered to open her home to anyone that still wishes to make a basket. We also need bakery and items for the country store and monetary donations for the money tree. Since our membership is down, we really do need everyone's cooperation for our first fundraiser, to support our scholarship fund and also the other philanthropic organizations that we donate to.

Ladies do not forget your paper products and toiletries for Yuletide Hunger, and hats and mittens or gloves for Northcosst Behaviorial Center. Bring them to our November Luncheon.

Mark your calendars for our November meeting that was switched by St. Michaels due to staff meetings, from Tuesday November 28 to Monday November 27. Please do not forget to mark your calendars.

We are really going to be pushed for time to set up for our luncheon and fundraiser. We usually are able to get in the night before. This year we are not able to because of events St. Michaels is having the night before. So please, if you can come early to help, Elaine and I would really appreciate it. We are going to try to get there by 8:00am. I think that will give us enough time to set up. Your bakery and country store items should be priced and ready to sell.

Linda Adams is requesting knitters and donations of yarn for her afghan project that she chairs. So please, if you know anyone that knits, ask if they would like to knit squares to make an afghan for a good cause. I really think this is a wonderful opportunity to do something for the less fortunate. This project has done very well in the past, so I would really like to see it continue, Linda just needs more knitters.

Try to get your reservations in as early as you can, for the fundraiser, and make sure you bring a guest, so we can make this very successful. It also makes it easier on the committee taking the reservations. I hope everyone got the corrected copy of the flyer for the luncheon. The corrected date for reservations is November 3.

Second Vice President - Programs - Yetta Vaughan

Hope you can join us on November 28th and be entertained by Emily Dorland. Emily sings songs from the 20s, 30s, 40s, and 50s,. She also likes to incorporate interesting facts about the songs and sometime dresses with clothing from that era.. I'm sure we all will enjoy her.

Afghans Linda Adams

We need your help to keep the Afghan Project going. We need people to crochet or knit 7x9-inch rectangles in any color or pattern. We also need donations of 4-ply, washable yarn in any color. Please, no wool. For more information contact Linda Adams (440) 736-7341

Thanksgiving is Coming Thelma Loeffler

Thanksgiving is a time for friends and family to gather. As time passed, we were all asked to bring in our favorite recipe and we would like to know what that was. Now, we would like you to submit your recipe to next month's meeting and one will be chosen to be printed in our newsletter. Please put your name on it, so we know the lucky winner! We know there are a lot of wonderful cooks out there. Good luck, and hope it's you!

Wow! Our Halloween party was a huge success! Seventeen members were in full costumes. It was a hard choice to narrow it down to three costumes. The lucky winners were Loretta Thrasher, who won first prize as she was dressed as a glamour witch. On her broom was a laughing witch doll years ago she had won at Brecksville Women's Club Halloween Costume contest. Her prize was one free lunch at BWC. Second prize was won by Thelma Loeffler as she was dressed as a pirate with a parrot on her shoulder. Her prize was a straw girl holding a basket of fresh apples. Third prize winner was Judith Grimm as she was dressed as a flapper with feathers in her hair and a long cigarette and fringe dress. Her prize was a straw boy holding a basket of fresh apples. Most members were very festive in their dress, and they got into the theme of the whole day._
