Third Vice President – Elaine Connelly

A huge thank you to everyone who has assisted in the fashion show fundraiser event. Your caring and contribution has been overwhelming and is so, so appreciated.

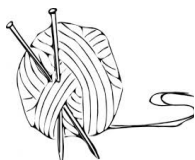

Event setup starts at 8:30 a.m. Doors open at 10:30 a.m. I think you will be impressed with the inside raffle prizes that have been donated from members and community members and businesses. Cash bar is open for the day. A change for this event: Your door prize ticket is already printed and in the "Drawing Bowl" as of your registration being paid.

BWC members Linda Chlanda and Connie Anselmo will model the outfits, along with Mary Boehlein's grand-daughters, Brianna and Isabella, and my niece, Ariel Connelly.

The Gazette Newspaper owner and manager, Joyce McFadden, will be present to take pictures, cover the event, and publicize our Club. Their reach extends to six suburbs: Brecksville, Broadview Heights, Brooklyn Heights, Independence, Parma, and Seven Hills.

April Meeting Notes- Thelma Loeffler

At our meeting there were ten ladies with hats on. It was fun to see why they chose to wear them. Each hat had a story. The head table had eight different hats. I told the history of why I had each hat at the table. It turned out to be a really fun day for everyone.
